

On July 5, 2022, the Connecticut Department of Labor (CTDOL) will launch ReEmployCT, a new tax and benefits system that will bring the state's antiquated unemployment system into the 21st century. If you are an employer who is liable for unemployment taxes, this new system will change how you file with CTDOL.

ABOUT THE NEW SYSTEM

For employers, the new technology will have more options and improve online access. Additionally, reimbursable employers will be billed quarterly instead of monthly and will now make payments online, thereby significantly reducing paperwork and filing time.

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

CTDOL has launched a ReEmployCT page to describe the changes; preview the new features and screens; and answer frequently asked questions. This page will be updated as information rolls out, so we encourage you to check it frequently as we get closer to the launch date. Don't want to click on email links? Just visit our homepage at ctdol.state.ct.us

Even easier, just sign up for ReEmployCT updates and we'll send ReEmployCT news directly to your inbox. CTDOL will only use this list for ReEmployCT Information—we'll send updates that link users to the resources that employers and filers need to be ready for the new system.

QUESTIONS?

We'll answer frequently asked questions on our website and continue to provide specific resources in the lead-up to the launch date.
